

Hood, Ybarra Proving Strong Men for Tartars

Rick Hood and Eleazar Ybarra are proving themselves to be the strong men of the Tartar baseballers as they led Torrance High to victory over Oxnard 8-6 in the first round of the Santa Monica Tournament.

Ybarra hit the only double of the game for a two for four hitting average. Rick Hood knocked in the tie-breaking run, also hitting two for four. Ybarra came back in the seventh to score another run just for added security.

the start of the second inning, Torrance banged away for six runs while Oxnard slapped out three which closed the second inning with Torrance leading 6-5.

The first three batters out of the Tartar bag, Erv Palica, Bob Clark, and Steve Waters, hit singles which loaded the bases. The next two batters struck out. Steve Parker singled, bringing Palica and Clark home.

WITH WATERS and Parker now on, Hood loaded the bases again on an error. Ybarra approached the plate and slammed out his double, scoring Waters and Parker, working under the pressure of two outs the Tartar had now scored 4 runs. With Hood and Ybarra on second and third, John Keith advanced to first on an error while Hood and Ybarra slipped home, running up a second inning total of six runs. Oxnard scored one run in the fourth inning, tying up the game. Torrance was held scoreless through the fifth but the sixth saw the Tartars move ahead.

McGUIRE, pinch hitting for McLean, walked. Greason walked moving McGuire to second. Along came Hood in the clutch, slammed a single, and scored McGuire from second. Ybarra dominated the last inning as he led off with a single, stole second, and scored on a wild pitch and a throwing error from the catcher.
